What is Community Planning?

Community Planning Partnerships (CPPs) bring together public, voluntary and private sector bodies, and local communities to deliver a shared ‘plan’ to improve the lives of local people. CPPs are set up by law (the 2015 Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act).

How was the Plan created?

The CPP gathers evidence about Midlothian and its people every year, bringing together all available information about the Midlothian area. The result is known as the Midlothian Profile, and is used by the CPP as the starting point for an annual “Strategic Assessment” of Midlothian. A Strategic Assessment involves reviewing the political, social, economic, technological, environmental, and legal changes facing the area. It describes the impact that these changes are likely to have on the communities of Midlothian.

The big ideas for areas of work that come from the Profile and the Strategic Assessment are then shared across a wide range of community groups, including neighbourhood planning groups and community councils. Discussions also take place with groups who help plan services for people facing certain issues, such as physical disability, learning disability, mental health issues, or caring for someone, as well as with older people and young people’s forums.

3 YEAR OUTCOMES 2016-2019

The Plan

The Community Planning Partnership carried out a review and engagement process during 2015/16 resulting in updated priorities for the next three financial years, 2016/17 to 2019/20. The top three priorities are to:

- Reduce the gap in learning outcomes
- Reduce the gap in health incomes
- Reduce the gap in economic circumstances

In response to these three priorities, Community Planning has five themes. These aim to achieve the following outcomes over the 3-year period (an "outcome" is a statement of how conditions will be, at the end of a process, and is a way of describing the end result of a number of actions that can be measured):

Adult Health and Care
- People are able to look after and improve their own health and wellbeing, and live in good health for longer
- People, including those with disabilities/long term conditions or who are frail, are able to live independently and in their own home, wherever possible
- Health and Social Care have contributed to reducing health inequalities
- Unpaid carers are supported to look after their own health and wellbeing.

Community Safety
- Fewer people are victims of crime, abuse or harm
- People feel safe in their neighbourhood and homes
- Our communities take a positive role in shaping their future.

Getting it Right for Every Midlothian Child
- Children in their early years and their families are being supported to be healthy, to learn, and to be resilient
- All Midlothian children and young people are being offered access to timely and appropriate support
- All care-experienced children and young people are being provided with quality services
- Children and young people are supported to be healthy, happy and reach their potential
- Inequalities in learning outcomes have reduced.

Improving Opportunities for the People of Midlothian
- Poverty levels in Midlothian are lower than the Scottish average
- Midlothian residents are successful learners and young people go on to positive destinations when they leave learning
- There is a reduction in inequality in health outcomes
- Citizens are engaged with service development and delivery.

Sustainable Growth

Neighbourhood plans

All community council areas have their own local profiles, either complete or in development in a rolling review process. From these, local residents and CPP partners have identified actions they want to work on together to improve what it is like to live in each community. These can be found at Neighbourhood Plans & Profiles in the Community Planning web pages at www.midlothian.gov.uk/yourcommunity. The three priority areas of Dalkeith/ Woodburn, Mayfield/ Easthouses and Gorebridge Neighbourhood Plans are the Locality Outcome Improvement Plans required under the Community Empowerment Act 2015.

Equalities

The Community Planning Partnership must make sure duties under the Equality Act are met. The Equality impact assessment of this plan is published on the Community Planning web pages of the council website at www.midlothian.gov.uk/yourcommunity. In addition to actions in each theme described in the impact assessment, a small number of other ‘equality specific’ actions are planned for 2018-19:

• Address Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender prejudiced based bullying/ discrimination/ inappropriate behaviour in our schools and colleges, continuing to support LGBTI and friends groups in our secondary schools
• Develop the role of Neighbourhood Planning groups in creating and sustaining inclusive communities
• Find opportunities for equalities characteristics groups to maximise influence by working together.
